ROZALÉN

Matriz

Rozalén celebrates a decade on stage with Matriz, her brand new album, in which she rescues traditional folk songs from all over Spain.
In her own words, the reason for the record: is that "right now, these are the songs that make me feel my very best when I sing. I want to pay tribute to the roots of our country's music; not only the music I've been singing since I was a young girl, in Albacete, but also from all the parts of the country I have been fortunate to visit and that made me feel at home during my 10-year career. This is the expression of my appreciation and my respect for the culture of Spain. I sing to my roots and to the roots of those who have made me feel at home". Rozalén
She will sing fandangos, habaneras, sevillanas, Galician songs, popular songs… and her major hits live, in an exclusive manner, in major theatres throughout Spain in the month of December.
These concerts will also be a celebration of the 10 years that have passed since her first record, Con derecho a..., was published independently. Although she knew then that music would be something that would accompany her all her life, she never imagined that she would make a living with music. With this incredulity regarding her life, Rozalén confesses that for her, this decade of work, during which she launched three more records, is just the beginning of everything yet to come.
