Composed by one of the greatest geniuses in music, The Magic Flute is a wonderful explosion of musical and theatrical imagination as well as a master work belonging to the "singspiel" genre, somewhat similar to the Spanish zarzuela, but set in classical times.

In it, you will meet Prince Tamino and his magic flute which attracts all of the animals in the forest: Pamina, the Beauty in love, the wicked Queen of the Night and her ladies, and the ingenious Papageno, a bird hunter who is desperately searching for his Papagena.
