In Sentimientos, the new project of the singer, dancer, percussionist, composer and choreographer Sabrina Romero, the common thread is time lived. Love, loneliness, inner search, failure and success are the protagonists, transformed into music and emotion. Her strong personality, a refined technique of expressiveness and the gentleness of a mother with her daughter are noteworthy.
A precocious artist, at the age of twelve Sabrina Romero won First Prize at the International Flamenco Competition of Nîmes in the category of Young Dancers, and was a supporting dancer for Paco de Lucia. She has performed at festivals such as Sziget, Montréal, Sydney, Jazz à Vienne or the Bienal de Sevilla. She has been part of the flamenco companies of Javier Latorre, Joaquín Grilo, Rocío Molina... and has shared the stage with Duquende, Carmen Linares, Manolo Sanlúcar, Renaud Garcia-Fons and Louis Winsberg. She has worked in different projects which mix jazz, Cuban, oriental and African music and has composed music for films and albums of different artists, in addition to publishing her personal album Syriana (2015).
