With the help of Marga, a 7-year-old girl that trembles every time she has to go to bed alone, we will go over all the fears that every child has to face when night time comes. Storms, monsters, strange noises, mysterious characters, creatures and animals... Juan Without Fear shows Marga that everything is a bad figment of her imagination, and that really, the night holds a wonderful world. Who would the Three Kings and Santa Clause be without the night? What would happen to the stars and the planets? What about the eagle and barn owls? And lit-up cities and fireworks...?

Through song and a lot of imagination, we will take a look at the things the night darkness holds to discover a world of happiness and color.
