Málaga Philharmonic Orchestra and Per Poc Marionette Company

Composer Piotr Ilich Tchaikovsky

Director ARTURO DÍEZ BOSKOVICH

Organised by MÁLAGA MUSIC FOUNDATION

A mysterious journey. A secret. An adventure on the wings of imagination. A melody that carries dreams. Lights, shapes, games, threads...A show with marionettes, and a theatre of shadows. An adaptation of the story by E.T.A. Hoffmann with the most famous pieces from Tchaikovsky's score. It will surprise you, so let yourself take a journey with the characters and enjoy the concert.

Santi Arnal founded the Per Poc Marionette Company in 1989, with maestro Harry V. Tozer. His interest to make the world of the marionette known has motivated diverse collaborations with visual arts, film &ndash; The man who killed Don Quijote &ndash; and music. Per Poc has collaborated with more than eighteen symphony orchestras, among which are the Taipei Symphony Orchestra, Orquesta Sinfónica de Euskadi, Orquesta Sinfónica del Principado de Asturias, Orquesta de Bilbao, the Real Filharmonia de Galicia, the Orquesta Simfònica del Vallès, and the Orquesta Filarmónica de Málaga. Arnal has also presented his shows on the stages of the prestigious Konzerthaus of Vienna, the Teatro Nacional Musical de Moscú, Palau de la Música Catalana, Festival Castell de Peralada, Gran Teatro del Liceo or the Festival Grec in Barcelona.
