Más Pasión

After extending geographic and musical horizons beyond the seas and publishing the CD+DVD Pasión en Buenos Aires, a live recording at the Teatro Nacional of the Argentinean capital last May, Pasión Vega comes back to tour Spain, to fill the theatres with songs of all accents which her warm and expressive voice makes sound unique. And, yet another year, the Cervantes is a stop on her route.

Although she was educated in the copla, the versatility and charisma of Pasión Vega have allowed her to transcend the limitations of the genre and create a new style that concentrates a sensitivity that forms as much part of the past as of the present, so different, so exquisite, that it surprises and captivates.

Without abandoning the musical tradition of Spain, the singer has made hers rancheras, tangos, boleros, ballads, waltzes ..., pop, swing, blues, jazz, all included in her records to date: Pasión Vega (2002, Gold Record and Award of the Academy of Music to the Best Spanish Song Album in 2002), Banderas de nadie (2003, Platinum Record, Award of the Academy of Music to the Best Spanish Song Album in 2003), Flaca de amor (2005, Gold Record), Pasión en el Maestranza (2005 and Award of the Academy of Music to the Best Spanish Song Album and best Audiovisual Musical Production in 2005), La reina del Pay Pay (2006, Gold Record and Award of the Academy of Music to the Best Spanish Song Album in 2006), Gracias a la vida (2009) and Pasión en Buenos Aires (2009).

Más Pasión offers us the best of all these albums.
