Argentinean singer-songwriter Fito Páez, one of the best and most internationally recognised Argentinean artists, returns to Spain to present live Confía, his record number twenty one in his long, generous and recognised musical career. Twelve new songs where Fito plays openly with emotions and language, at the mercy of an intense creative drive. Twelve electric songs where bare sounds and spontaneity envelop lyrics charged with a vitality related to trust, in the most spiritual and intimate sense of the word.

"I am a 47-year-old man who has seen many things in life, but I still believe one can find a flower in the swamp". "In the end, what we are left with is embracing one another, trusting one another and loving and being loved in the middle of the battleground of life", muses the artist.
