TEATRO CERVANTES | ECHEGARAY DE MÁLAGA

1.30 h (w/out intermission)

Following a tradition that exists in many cities around the world, in Malaga the Philharmonic Orchestra together with its chief conductor Jose Maria Moreno will be in charge of welcoming the 2025 New Year with lively and entertaining pieces of the European repertoire and other emblematic pieces of our vibrant heritage of zarzuelas.

Graduated in Conducting at the Robert Schumann Hochschule in Düsseldorf, the international career of Maestro Julio García Vico (Cádiz, 1992) is launched in 2019 when he wins the German Conducting Award (First Prize, Audience Award and Prize of the Friends of the Bonn Opera), conducting by heart R. Strauss' Don Juan with the WDR Symphony Orchestra at the Kölner Philharmonie; a performance for which the jury described him as "an extraordinary talent".

In 2020 he made his professional debut with the Munich Symphony Orchestra making a last-minute substitution and for which he was re-invited five more times that same year.

In 2021 he received first prize in the 16th Donatella Flick Conducting Competition organized by the London Symphony Orchestra.

He has been music director of the Opera Studio of the theaters of Krefeld and Mönchengladbach in Germany, assistant conductor of the London Symphony Orchestra (working with maestros such as Sir Simon Rattle, Gianandrea Noseda, François-Xavier Roth or Antonio Pappano) and assistant to Maestro Nicola Luisotti at the Teatro Real.

He has recently made his debut with the Mozarteum Orchestra (Salzburg), the Orquesta Nacional de España, the Orquesta de RTVE, the Orquesta de Milán, the Orquesta Sinfónica de San Petersburgo and the Orquesta Ciudad de Granada.
