It is a tradition in major cities around the world to welcome the New Year with music. The Malaga Philharmonic Orchestra, together with Cristóbal Soler, the maestro from Valencia considered one of the most important conductors of his generation, and Lorena Valero, the mezzo-soprano from Lerida who stands out on stage due to the strong musical and theatrical personality with which she brings her characters to life, will perform the first beats of 2023 with a selection of waltzes, polkas, zarzuelas and European operetta.
