"María Callas is still the most famous singer in the world. Innumerable articles and books have been published about her, as well as films and documentaries, but her mystery continues to captivate. She was everything in art, and lost it for love and indifference. Passion was her driving force: passion for art, passion for love.

María Callas, sfogato is an intimate show that shows us a vulnerable woman, hounded by the press and her admirers, but also a great artist, without limits and invincible, as is characteristic of a soprano sfogato. Accompanied only by Bruna, her housekeeper and perhaps the person closest to her, María reveals part of her secrets, those that filled her life and those that led her to a tragic death at the age of 53."

Pedro Vllora

"Life is music, and at every important moment we are aware of that. María Callas, sfogato aims to be a musical celebration that extols María Callas as a unique icon: La Divina. A diva for music and also for life and love. This show will present a real María,
