Juan Perro's band, led by Santiago Auserón, brings together the singular voices of a group of creators and musicians bound by complicity who take the synthesis of Afro-American and Hispanic traditions to the territory of experimentation with sound. Poetic emotion, humour at the service of invention in every piece, the impulse of dance and their depth of interpretation are what distinguishes them. In Juan Perro's repertoire, blues, R&B, rock, soul and jazz standards blend naturally with the mainly Cuban Afro-Latin tradition and with Iberian music. Auserón's scores and performances have reached maturity without abandoning the insolence of the adolescent experimenter.
