FROM CHRONO CROSS TO XENOSAGA: a journey through the musical worlds of Yasunori Mitsuda

Movie Score Malaga Assemble Orchestra
Conductor Isabel Rubio

Few composers have had such a premature and successful debut as Yasunori Mitsuda, who at the age of 22 triumphantly entered the world of music for videogames, composing together with the legendary Nobuo Uematsu y Noriko Matsueda the soundtrack for "Chrono Trigger", recently considered by the Japanese public as the best videogame of history.

The composer visits the West for the first time to share his work in concert and to present the music he composed for the three most important sagas of the history of videogames: Chrono Cross, Xenosaga and Xenogears. Time to take your gamepad out!
