NATIONAL AWARD FOR PRESENT-DAY MUSIC
2020 GOYA AWARD FOR BEST ORIGINAL SONG 'INTEMPERIE, FROM BENITO ZAMBRANO'S FILM BY THE SAME NAME

Javier Ruibal rediscovers himself in his most recent project, Ruibal, a book-record written and composed from March to May 2020 during the confinement. Ruibal's work during these unusual months contains a great deal of love and humour. Far from falling into a foreseeable state of sadness and melancholy, the singer-songwriter has created a very complete piece, fully of maturity and originality, which he defines as "a sonorous and visual reflection on human beings' most intimate concerns". A healing balm for all listeners at a crucial time for survival.
A career of thirty years endorses this creative musician, different from all those of his generation and culture. Composer, arranger, guitarist and singer from Cádiz, self-taught and unorthodox. Frontier music.
Javier Ruibal, more Ruibal than ever.
