Although she was born in Mozambique, Mariza is one of the most popular and internationally known singers (and occasionally composer) of fado. Since her participation in posthumous concerts in honour of Amália Rodrigues, she has continued to amaze the world with seven albums, of which 30 are Platinum, live collaborations and records with artists such as Sting, Kiri Te Kanawa, Gonzalo Rubalcaba and Miguel Poveda; and in particular with her concerts, at which she confirms that she is an exquisite, genuine and profound artist.
