Jarrillo Lata has become in its own right one of the most relevant bands in Andalusia, following in the footsteps of Tabletom and Danza Invisible. For more than a decade the group has been performing on stage, where it feels completely disinhibited, generous and at its best. Its ample repertoire includes rock, reggae, funk and of course flamenco: musical styles which provide the framework for pieces that speak in a casual yet profound manner about living, with the premise that life is much too important to take seriously. Pure divertimento.
