The Beatles Songbook is an instrumental ensemble that reinterprets the mythical British band's huge musical heritage. Unique, unrepeatable compositions interpreted by an unusual instrumental group that mixes the most ingrained classical music tradition (the string quartet) and a jazz duo (formed by a vibraphone and a piano). "Talent, freshness, enthusiasm and a dazzling technique…", "A show of great quality that is original and daring" are some of the opinions of the critics after nearly two years of concerts all over Spain.
