With this performance, Ochotumbao will raise funds for the benefit of 12 associations in Malaga: Adaner Málaga, Al-Farala, Altamar, Amappace, Ángeles Malagueños de la Noche, Aspaym Málaga, Avoi, Asociación Down Málaga, Jomad, Málaga Acoge, Nupa and the Society for the Protection of Plants and Animals of Malaga.

The “live and direct” version of Mi año favorito, the moment’s least acclaimed podcast, has reached the stage.
With humour, Dani Rovira and Arturo González Campos will take us on a journey through the year’s events that have been of particular significance for each city they visit. With the participation of the audience, they will all share the memories of that year.
Mi año favorito is a show of improvisation, recollections, and a lot of joking. We do not promise rigour, nor do we promise laughter.
The Ochotumbao Foundation is a non-profit initiative that aims to support projects geared at improving the life of the most disadvantaged persons, conserving the environment and defending animals.
