There was once a village... There was once a woman... There was once a story...
Hubo is a show without words that speaks of love, loss, loneliness, memory and sense of belonging. Hubo is a tribute to the villages, to the rural world and to the people who inhabit them. A woman who resists abandoning her world, reduced to a stone island. Her story is that of many persons who have had to say goodbye to what was once their home.
