1.10 h (w/out intermission) Soap bubbles and a clown. From 5 years

7bubbles.weebly.com/burbuja.html

This is a crazy comedy of soap bubbles and a clown, with the audience as the main character. Because a bubble is worth more than a thousand words, they are presented full of magic and humour in multiple forms. And do not forget that even though soap bubbles disappear, we can keep their beauty forever. With games and the creation of new images and textures, Burbuja uses language that is common to everyone: the language of happiness that we all share.
