This is the story of a young 5 year old prince who has had a very strict upbringing. When he has to govern his tiny castle, he is despotic and ruthless with his few subjects. One of them is Candela, a little girl his age. She teaches him to be patient, to be good and respectful, and that happiness lies beyond his strict rules. However, a duck who cannot emigrate to the south with his flock because of a broken wing is the one who will finally succeed in changing the young prince's attitude.
