Ikun is an invented story that could have occurred to the bushmen, the indigenous people of the Kalahari Desert. Ikun is the story of water, of flight, of search, of discovering the unknown. A story of life, wealth and poverty. Unexpected events will oblige Ikun, the princess of water, to travel in search of help. The road through the old country will not always be easy.
Petit Teatro is a company from Malaga with over 25 years of experience, specialised in the world of children and family audiences. In its shows the company addresses different topics using a variety of theatrical techniques, but always with the common approach of social commitment.
