A reflexive and humorous review of the work and thought of the Carmelite mystic and poet. "Saint John of the Cross is the harmonious combination of the exquisite culture, refined sensitivity and free spirit of a "pastor" who makes his way in the world like a ray of light in the dark".

"The life of these 16th century creatures, of Saint Teresa and Saint John of the Cross, are of enormous wealth and true rebelliousness with the appearance of moderation and obedience. In our days we have the exact opposite: rebellion in appearance but ultimately total submission." El Brujo
