En la boca del lobo [In the wolf's mouth] consists of old remodelled material, assembled and impregnated with a popular aroma. It is a collage in which an experienced puppeteer and an excellent musician go on a festive tour in the company of the most "villain" characters of the most popular fairy tales. An entertaining return to the essence of popular theatre.
Mr Cat is part of this mix up, and like in old fairy tales, turns into Cristina the Witch, who in turn becomes an elf, who becomes a wolf impersonating Cockroach the Bandit, who finally turns into a giant that the audience will end up feeding.
