A vision from the other side of the mirror…
The audience, like the innocent Alice, will cross the glass into the depths of The Black Mirror: a dark world ruled by light and inhabited by creatures that are elegant, irreverent, affectionate, perverse, solitary, and provocative; souls filled with a corrosive and sarcastic sense of humour.
An extravagant androgynous character from the world of darkness will submerge us in a parallel reality from the other side of the mirror that deforms what we see to brazenly reveal our sins and vileness
