Nadia is back from a magician's show, where she participated as a volunteer in a hypnosis number during which the magician made her fly over the city. Or is she, maybe, still on stage, her eyes closed, next to the magician? But then, who is this woman who looks so much like Nadia? This is the beginning of a fantastic comedy/fantasy that turns into a family drama, and even a horror story. A mixture of genres that conceals many levels of interpretation. Juan Mayorga's plays always entail a dilemma.
