The young seamstress Sira Quiroga leaves Madrid several months before the beginning of the Civil War, madly in love with a man she hardly knows. They settle together in Tangier, a worldly, exotic and vibrant city where the inconceivable can happen. Alone and worried because of some else's debts, Sira moves to Tetouan, the capital of the Spanish Protectorate in Morocco. With the help of friends with shady reputations and by means of unspeakable schemes, she takes on a new identity and succeeds in opening a select atelier that caters to clients of remote origins and unsuspected present. From then on, with the Spanish Civil War over and WWII about to begin, Sira's destiny is tied to a handful of historical characters. Pushed by all of them towards a risky commitment, the fabrics, stitches and patterns of her profession become the visible façade of something that is murkier and much more dangerous.

beon. Entertainment, a production company headed by Dario Regathien, is committed to producing its own original shows created entirely by Spanish talent. The company's most emblematic productions are El medico, el musical, based Noah Gordon's bestseller The Physician; Antoine, winner of the MAX Award for Best New Show, which tells the incredible story of Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, author of Le Petit Prince; El tiempo entre costuras, el musical, based on the successful novel by María Dueñas; La historia interminable, el musical, based Michael Ende's novel by the same name; and Forever Van Gogh, based on an original idea by the producer, with music by Ara Malikian and choreography by Chevi Muraday. November, 2024 will see the world premiere of the blockbuster Los pilares de la tierra, el musical, based on Ken Follett's bestseller. Mozart Unleashed, which completes the trilogy of stage productions that focus on the biographies of great artistic geniuses (Antoine and Forever Van Gogh), is a fascinating play that narrates unknown aspects of the Mozart's life, without filters or censorship.
