Musical theatre with opera voices, zarzuela music.

The Kingdom of Adragon is going through turbulent times: the Great Lords are in power, with their orders, executions and ambition. And now the dragons, symbol of wisdom, must be eliminated. Pe is a female warrior. Jota is in love. The Great Lords are a fallacy and the dragons...are they really evil? An enCHANTED legend where everything appears to be upside down.

The company MikrÓPERA was founded in 2008 in Zaragoza to create and offer original musical theatre proposals in a very accessible format. To date it has produced ten shows that provide a fresh and amusing experience to discover opera and enjoy it with the whole family.
